Editorial 066

Steve takes two! What an excellent result for Steve Whittaker, doubling his tally of wins in one night by taking victory in the first 15-minute Endurance Race and then backing it up with a second in the 5-minute Sprint Race! To add to that he took his first career fastest lap in Round 31 and then repeated it in Round 32. A great night for Steve and his BMW Z4 which now overtakes the Ferrari 488 to go fourth in the all-time manufacture wins at DHORC-CD. Congrats Steve.

Congratulations also to our other winner on the night Martin Thorpe who took control of the second Endurance Race and extending his lead in the Group Challenge. In addition to this we had seven other Group winners James Bowles (3), Chris Cooper (3), Ryan Goodere with his 1st ever then a 2nd, Stuart Gray, Anthony Mitro (2), Liam Smith and Dave Trantom. Again congratulations.

This was our last Carrera Digital evening before the summer break, racing resuming on 08Sep26 at Sonoma Raceway. Before then however we are going to have a trial run with our crazy 401'3" Interlagos circuit on 17Aug26. That should be a busy yet fun day!

We have got plenty of other fun day's over the next few weeks with our final two HO evenings on 28Jul26 and 04Aug26 before the break. The July one is our incredible 8-lane routed dhorcingham oval. All are invited to come and try it out if you are free. Then we get into the meat of our summer Corporate events with Cromford Steam Rally, Convoy in the Park and hopefully the BTCC at Donington Park, plus some others. We certainly aren't going to be bored and will be looking for a rest come September by getting back to racing! See you at Sonoma. Nick Sismey

Front Cover: A very happy Steve Whittaker at Watkins Glen Turn 1.

2. Our biggest Carrera Digital circuit – Interlagos!

With thanks to Phil Rees producing another 10 power straights, taking us to 20, and a whole new power lead box we have now been able to book a date to test our largest ever Carrera Digital circuit, the 401'3" original Interlagos.

Derby Leisure & Events have kindly agreed for us to use the larger Nightingale Hall for free on Monday 17Aug26 to make sure everything works before we run it as a proper Tuesday evening event later in the year on a date to be agreed.

Thanks to Nick Jarrah we will have a van to move everything across to the room on Sunday, so the agreed team are able to build first thing Monday morning. Watch this space for more news.

3. New Interlagos 20^{ths} thanks to Razor!

With the Interlagos track being so long, rather than the normal tenths we will have the track broken down into twentieths thanks to John Lamb who made our original tenths.

4. Flexi wings!

Phil Rees has also been busy 3D printing some flexi wings for our GT cars from Thermoplastic Polyurethane filament or TPU for short. They look great as the X-Bow one shows below.

On 28Jul26 we run our incredible HO scale 107'11" eight-lane dhorcingham oval which was born out of the ashes of the Rockingham Motor Speedway that Brad Bowman made for us in Escondido, California in 2000. We run four different classes during the evening with Qualifying starting at 18:00 hours.

If any of your fancy a run on this amazing track please come down to the Nightingale Hall. We will have spare cars available.

Key: Richard averaged 19.333 in last race, James 20.6670 so Richard C6

Chris Cooper had his best Evening of the year equalling his best finish of 2nd in Round 30 followed by a 3rd and a 4th. He also took all three Group B wins as well as a best ever 2nd in fastest laps in Round 30. He admitted he “enjoyed it the most I ever have done!”

Angus Smith also liked Watkins Glen with two 3rd placed finishes and a 6th. He's only finished once out of the top ten now in the last nine races as his form returns.

Ryan Goodere took his first ever Group win, the E, in Round 30 and followed that up with his second in Round 32.

Anthony Mitro took his 2nd Group C win of the year in Round 30 and 3rd in Round 31 with a best placed finish of 7th in the first Club Night

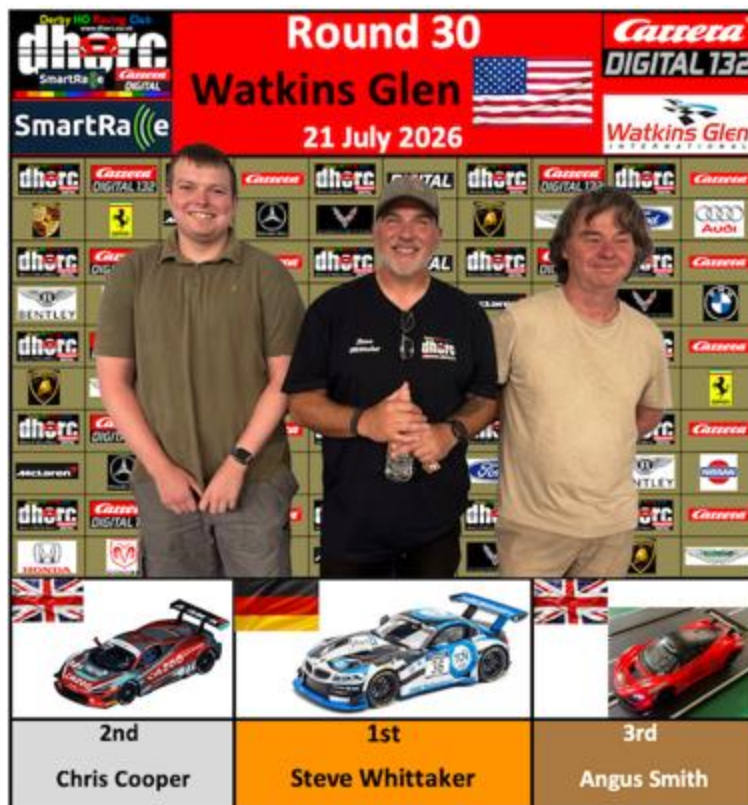

Steve reaches his zen at Watkins Glen

Steve Whittaker was the first to tame the curves of Watkins Glen on Tuesday night out of a 28 strong grid. With his BMW Z4, from sixth on the grid, he took his third career victory, all posted this year, and the Group A win, by 1.5 laps over Group B winner Chris Cooper who equalled his best ever finish with his Cazoo McLaren 720S. Added to this Chris set the second fastest lap in the first 15-minute Endurance Race of the night, beating his previous best of third on 21Jan25 at Mugello. Our 2022 Carrera Digital Champion Angus Smith's similar McLaren 720S, apart from being painted bright orange like all of Angus' cars, matched his best result of 2026 with his sixth 3rd place finish, 1.2 laps behind Chris. Steve's win with his BMW takes the make to 23 victories at DHORC-CD matching Ferrari, both now in fourth place.

Having won 14 Group B races from the last 24 starts Martin Thorpe found himself in Group A in upstate New York and duly beat three of his counterparts in taking fourth overall another four tenths back with his Porsche 911, on 76.7 laps. Tom Gray made it four Group A racers in the top five and the second BMW Z4 as he finished on the same lap but just passed the first tenth on 76.1.

Steve White made it five Group A cars in the top six with his Porsche 911 making it two BM's, two McLarens and two Porsches across the line to date, finishing on 73.6 laps.

Anthony Mitro made it three Porsche 911s to see the flag in the top seven, as he took Group C for the second time in 2026, ahead of fellow Group C racer Jag Kalyan who was the first Audi R8 runner. While Anthony was 1.1 laps behind fellow Porsche racer Steve he was just 0.6 laps ahead of Jag on 72.5 and 71.9 laps respectively. There wasn't much of a gulf between Jag and Nick Sismey with his Gulf Porsche 911, just 0.8 laps, as he took ninth, the fourth Porsche to arrive in post-race Parc Ferme on 71.1 laps. Ted Whittaker joined Jag with his similar Audi R8 on 70+ laps to round out the top ten on 70.8.

James Bowles made it nine German Volkswagen Group cars in the first 11 placings with the fifth Porsche 911 across the line. With it he took his second Group win of the year, the D this time, his 70.3 laps half a lap behind Ted and the last of the 70+ lappers.

Having set James car up Terry Mullen was bemused to be beaten by him by one place and 0.4 laps, his identical BMW Z4 to our winner Steve, hitting 69.9 laps in 12th. He was joined on the same lap and tenth by both fellow Group B racer Lewis Blacker, with the first Ferrari 488 home, as was Stuart Gray and his McLaren 720S easily identified by four big blobs of pink on it! This took us to half way through the grid with 1 Ferrari, 2 Audis, 3 BMWs, 3 McLarens and 5 Porsches.

José Borges led home the second half of the grid with his all blue Audi R8, his 15th place only a tenth away from making it a four way tie for 12th on 69.8 laps! Our 2023 and 2024 Champion Simon Goodlip took us to four Audi R8s with his worst result of the year, 16th on 69.5 laps closing out

James Bowles took all three Group D wins with two 11th place finishes and a 10th

Simon Goodlip added three more Poles to his Club record, now sitting at 83 together with one fastest lap, finishing runner up twice at Watkins Glen.

Group A, partially due to running with a 3-lap penalty that without would have placed him seventh. The main reason though was that at the start of the race his R8's chip hadn't been coded correctly. Once fixed he struggled to make up any ground on the top half of the grid but still set his 67th (10th) fastest lap, having earlier set a record 81st (11th) Pole.

Having already had five racers on 69 laps we still had another two. Andrew Staniec and his Porsche 911, unfortunately, only ran in the first Round of the evening finishing on 69.1 laps in 17th, taking third in the D, with Phil Rees, running the only Mustang in the field, just a tenth behind in 18th closing out Group B. After seven cars on the same lap, the next six cars were all on different laps, although Nick Jarram's Porsche 911 (the 7th) was only a tenth of a lap away from joining these seven on 68.9 in 19th. Liam Smith followed Nick home in Group D with his Audi R8, taking fifth in the Group on 66.0 laps in 20th, while Richard Booth's McLaren 720S, identical to brother-in-law Stuart's except for the big pink blobs, closed out the C on 65.6 laps in 21st.

Five of the remaining seven racers were the entirety of Group E as we only had five cars on the grid in Groups D and E. Of those five Group E racers it was Ryan Goodere who took top honours for the very first time in his seventh start, his first Group win. If enthusiasm was the goal to success Ryan has it in spades! Let's just hope he doesn't dig any holes! His bright yellow Corvette, like Phil's Mustang, was the only one on parade. His 63.0 laps beat marshal extraordinaire (even better than Ryan but don't tell him that) Daniel Kalyan's KFC Audi R8 (the 6th on the grid) by just half a lap as he took 23rd, on 62.5 laps.

Simon Rankin was also running a bright yellow car, as usual, his Lamborghini Huracan, again the only one of the type on the track, whether upside down (See Page 42) or right side up, as he headed the final four Group E racers in 24th on 60.6 laps. Unfortunately this would also be his one and only start of the evening. We had 11 cars finish with 70+ laps and 13 on 60+ laps. The remaining four all surpassed 50 laps. Lee Stokes was third in the E with the eighth Porsche 911 at Watkins Glen recording 57.9 laps in 25th with 26th belonging to the ninth Porsche 911 of Dave Trantom, 0.4 laps back on 57.5 laps, although Dave wasn't happy with his lot and therefore a certain Chairman of DHORC came to his aid in Rounds 31 and 32.

Our second Ferrari 488 to reach the flag was Andy Mason's in 27th, with a just a tenth of a lap separating him from Dave, on 57.4 laps. The seventh and Final Audi R8 to complete the first gruelling 15-minute Endurance Race was that of Macaully Dutson on 28th on 55.8 laps. Our 20th different CD Member to claim a Wooden Spoon in 2026.

The car count at the end of the race read as follows: 1 Corvette, 1 Lamborghini, 1 Mustang, 2 Ferraris, 3 BMWs, 4 McLarens, 7 Audis and 9 Porsches.

Group E – Lee Stokes, Andy Mason, Ryan, Simon Rankin & Dave Trantom

Group D – Macaully Dutson, Daniel Kalyan, Stuart Gray, Andrew Staniec & James

Group C - Richard Booth, Nick Jarram, Anthony, Jag Kalyan, José Borges & Liam Smith

Key: Richard averaged 19.333 in last race, James 20.6670 so Richard C6

Group B – Phil Rees, Nick Sismey, Lewis Blacker, Terry Mullen, Ted Whittaker & Chris

Group A – Tom Gray, Martin, Steve, Angus, Steve & Simon

Terry took a best finish of 12th in Round 30, Nick 17th in Round 32. Here's looking at you!

Andy had his best run in Round 31 with 22nd while in the same race Dave, after borrowing Nick's spare Porsche 911, took the Group E win (his third career win) as well as equalling his best every finish of 15th. "Can I have my car back please Dave?"

Martin cruises to 3rd win of the year

Martin Thorpe certainly wasn't the quickest in our second 15-minute Endurance Race of the evening, Round 31, with only posting the eighth fastest lap of the race. However he was the most methodical, crashing very rarely and making his pit stops perfectly. Lapping just above the 9.900 second lap time where you use 25% more fuel (his best was 9.972) he ensured he had to make the minimum number of pit stops. His 8th (3rd) victory, his last being on 17Mar26 at Ruapuna, saw him become the only racer on the night to surpass 80 laps with a score of 80.9. Shy of the track record of 83.6 laps, but who needs to quote records when you are in victory lane!

Simon Goodlip would have hit 80.7 laps however his 2-lap penalty restricted him to 78.7, still good enough for second, a 15 place improvement from his nightmare first run at Watkins Glen. Prior to the start of Round 31 he would take a record 82nd (12th) Pole, to go with the one for Round 31. Angus Smith took back-to-back third place finishes, but this time had to share it with Chris Cooper who dropped a place from the previous Round. They finished on 78.1 a piece with Chris again taking the Group B win.

With two racers in third we had one family covering fourth and fifth with Round 31 winner Steve Whittaker beating son Ted Whittaker by 0.8 laps, 77.4 to 76.6. Steve would have taken third overall on his own had he not received a 1-lap penalty, which he has now lost for the next Endurance Race at Sonoma Raceway. Added to this he took his very first fastest lap in his 75th race start, beating his previous best of third, funny enough, at our last visit to Sonoma Raceway on 20Jan26. For some reason I keep calling Ted, Tom, well it was a Tom who took seventh, Tom Gray, just a tenth behind Ted on 76.5 laps. I never call Tom, Ted though! Oh and it's me, Nick Sismey, next, 1.3 laps behind ~~Ted~~ Tom in eighth, one better than my previous attempt.

Anthony Mitro was again in charge of Group C (his third Group win of the year) in ninth with 71.6 laps, closely followed by José Borges in tenth on 71.2 laps, second in Group C, a five place movement up the grid for our Portuguese racer. He was the first of three racers with their first name beginning with the letter 'J', James Bowles taking back-to-back Group D wins (and again beating his teammate Terry!) in 11th on 70.5 laps and Jag Kalyan, having a great night, in 12th, our third Group C racer over the line on 70.0 laps. He would share his result with Stuart Gray, who took second in the D, the second straight race where Stuart finished in 12th and has shared a result! Correction, third, as he shared a Sprint Race result at Okayama on 07Jul26!

Lee took a best finish of 21st in Round 31 and mirrored that in the last race of the night.

With only 26 on the grid for our second race of the night, two down from Round 31, Liam Smith would lead home the second half of the grid in 14th on 69.4 laps. In the previous round we had 11 racers on 70+ laps, this time that increased by one to 12. Liam therefore was top of the 60+ lappers of which there were eight compared to 13. Dave Trantom was reborn having borrowed a Porsche 911 from yours truly for his second run around the upstate New York track, taking the Group E win in 15th on 68.8 laps, his third career Group win, equalling his best ever finish. Talk about the smile of a Cheshire cat that has found the cream!

Daniel Kalyan had a much better run in his second attempt of the night, up seven places to 16th on 67.8 laps, 5.3 laps further down the road with his KFC liveried car. While Ryan Goodere couldn't match his Group E win he did move up five places to 17th, a tenth behind Daniel on 67.7 laps, second in the fifth Group. Nick Jarrah finished on the same lap as Ryan but had just crossed the line when SmartRace killed the power for him on 70 laps exactly, in 18th, a one place improvement! Lewis Blacker and Phil Rees finished considerably lower than their grid positions of 10th and 11th would suggest, taking 19th and 20th on 65.6 laps and 62.9 laps, Lewis dropping seven places from Round 31 while Phil dropped two, as they finished in B4 and B5.

Lee Stokes was the last of our 60+ lappers in 21st on 60.1 laps, a four place improvement, again taking third in the E, while Andy Mason jumped five places to 22nd on 58.1 laps, despite only adding seven tenths of a lap to his previous outing. Like Andy in the E, the remaining four racers all closed out their respective Groups. Macaully Duston added 1.4 laps in his second run and five places as he shut down Group D again, on 57.2 laps, while Richard Booth also took responsibility for the closure of Group C again, three places further back than before in 24th.

Incredibly Steve White, despite his worse score due to car problems (25th) since Mugello on 21Jan25 (27th), still leads the Endurance Race Championship but second placed Simon has reduced that lead by over half from 56 to 27 points while Round 31 winner Martin jumps from 5th to 3rd, 92 points further back. In one sense he could celebrate his 200th race start by maintaining the Championship lead, in another he had work to do! Recording just 53.0 laps here, but still recording the seventh fastest lap, Steve beat an equally car troubled Terry Mullen by 12.7 laps as our Terry became our 21st different racer to be awarded a Wooden Spoon on 40.3 laps in 26th.

José closed out the top ten in this Round, his best result of the evening.

21st July 2026

Tom would reach the bottom step of the podium in Round 32

Daniel was again top marshal taking a best of 16th in Round 31

Steve sees one red bus then another comes along!

Steve Whittaker took his second win of the night, with 29.9 laps, in our 5-minute Sprint Race which again saw 26 cars on the grid, with both Group D and E running with just four racers! This was the first time Steve has taken two wins at the same track and with it his BMW Z4 now overtakes the Ferrari 488 stranglehold on fourth place in the all-time manufacturers wins at DHORC-CD, 24 to 23. The last Ferrari win was by the absent Victor de Oliveira on 15Oct24 at Fuji-Speedway! Steve's 4th (4th) victory was after he secured second on the grid, beating his PB third at the previous evening at Okayama two weeks earlier. To close our Steve's achievements over The Pond he also took back-to-back fastest laps the second of his career!

Simon Goodlip matched his second place finish in the second ER of the evening, three tenths behind Steve on 29.6 laps although, had he not been carrying a 1-lap penalty, he would have won by seven tenths. Steve joins him on a 1-lap penalty for the next SR race at Sonoma Raceway on 08Sep26. Prior to reaching the second step of the Podium Simon continued to dominate Qualifying on Tuesday taking all three Poles, his club record now at 83 (13). Tom Gray also just made it onto 29.0 laps to take his best result of the night, third, the first time of the night where Group A dominated the Podium.

Chris Cooper was only two tenths of a lap away from making it three podiums in a row as he took all three Group B wins on the night for the first time, doubling his number of Group wins for the year and taking him to a career 20. His 28.8 laps beat fellow Group B racer Ted Whittaker by 0.6 laps as Ted took his best result at Watkins Glen, fifth on 28.2 laps.

Angus Smith joined these two on 28 laps as he just passed the Control Unit as the power ebbed away, on 28.0 in sixth. His namesake Liam Smith finally got things together with a seventh place finish after a 20th and a 14th earlier, 26.6 laps going down in his record books, as well as the Group C win, his sixth of the campaign. As a result he would be one of three racers to move up the most Ranking places after Watkins Glen, five.

Steve White, with a 1-lap penalty (which he now loses), took eighth on 26.3 lap. Even without the penalty he would have only jumped one place to seventh. In the Sprint Race Championship the top three remain the same with Steve again still leading and Simon again in second. Again, Simon has reduced the lead, this time from 30.5 to 23.5 points. The absent Victor remains in third, 19.5 points in arrears as opposed to 1.0 point prior to the race in the Finger Lakes. Anthony Mitro couldn't make it three straight Group C wins as he was 0.7 laps short of Sprint Race Group C winner Liam. Anthony's 25.9 laps still gave him ninth overall and second in the C, actually taking more Group points than Liam thanks to his Group grid position, C4. He was also ninth in Qualifying beating his previous best of 10th at Sonoma Raceway on 20Jan26. He was the second racer to move up five Ranking places following Watkins Glen.

Liam and Macaully did a terrific job re gathering the tenths and helping with the results service. Liam took the Group C win in the Sprint Race finishing 7th with Macca taking a best 17th in the same race.

We then had no less than three cars in tenth place with Jag Kalyan sharing 25.7 laps with a gentleman he introduced to DHORC-CD James Bowles who made it three straight Group D wins at Watkins Glen, taking him to four wins for the year and eight all-time. Guess who also joined them? For the fourth straight race Stuart Gray shared a finishing position with other racers. Added to that he also shared the Group D win with James. While this was only his second of the year he now totals 28 Group wins from 213 starts! Stuart was the third and final racer to move up five ranking positions after these three races.

With four racers finishing on their 26th lap already we had another four joining them. But a tenth behind our trio, in 13th, was Lewis Blacker on 25.6 laps while Nick Sismey and José Borges, as he pointed out to Nick, finished on the same 25.5 laps in 14th. Therefore just 0.2 laps prevented us having a six way tie for 10th! Phil Rees was the last to start his 26th lap, having just surpassed the first tenth marker in 16th as everything went quiet!

There was another pair in 17th with Macaully Dutson moving in the right direction as the evening progressed from 28th to 23rd to his best finishing position of the night. The same could be said for Nick Jarram, he however only improved by a place per race joining Macca on 24.7 laps. Ryan Goodere meanwhile was back to winning ways again in Group E with a 19th place finish with 24.5 laps while Daniel Kalyan closed out Group D this time on 23.6 laps in 20th. Lee Stokes, like Ryan, completed his ninth Club Night in the Sprint Race, taking 21st on 22.5 laps, matching his Round 31 result, and second in the E.

Dave Trantom again enjoyed running my Porsche 911 but didn't quite have the same success, third in the E and 22nd at the flag with 22.3 laps. He did however have something to cheer about, 16th on the grid in Qualifying beating his 17th at Bathurst on 29Nov25! Our 70+ Group Challenge leader Richard Booth wasn't having the best night as he made it three C6 finishes in a row, this time in 23rd on 21.1 laps. Richard continues to lead the Championship however, despite Andrew Staniec, who only attended one of the three races on Tuesday, taking 1.5 out of Richard's lead bringing it down from 16.5 to 15.0 points. Stuart, in third, took the most Group points in New York State reducing the gap to Andrew from 11.5 to just 0.5 points.

Andy Mason also closed out Group E for the third straight race at Watkins Glen in 24th this time on 20.6 lapss while Terry Mullen managed a back-to-back closure of Group B, deciding to take his car behind the wall after just 1.3 laps. Amazingly he didn't back up his Wooden Spoon from the previous Round as the very astute Martin Thorpe, having won Round 32, completed but a lap and then sat in the pits for the remaining 5-minutes of the race to become our 22nd racer to take home a prized Wooden Spoon in 2026. The reason for these tactics was that he wanted to increase his Ranking score so he would move out of Group A to his favoured Group B. It worked as he now sits in B2 for Sonoma Raceway.

Despite Martin being the last racer over the line in the last race he extended his lead in the Group Challenge from 9.5 points to an incredible 21.5 in one evening! Liam moves up to second while Martin's M&S teammate Steve drops a place to third 0.5 points back. While 21.5 points separates first and second the next 21.5 points covers second to 13th position so close are the next 12 racers!

Martin & Steve's M&S team also extend their lead over Team Audistang's Simon & Phil from 37.0 to 43.5 points in the Team Group Challenge with Stuart & Tom's Gray Hounds just 1.5 points back, after overtaking former third placed Old Rollers Richard & Nick who drop 4.5 points behind them.

Jag had a great evening averaging 10th across all three races.

Ted went even better averaging 7th

Circuit History

Sonoma Raceway has been transformed since the late 1980s from a sleepy road course with basic facilities into one of the busiest motorsport facilities in the USA.

The circuit has hosted a diverse range of series over the years, from IndyCars to the ALMS and Grand-Am, alongside non-domestic series such as the World Touring Car Championship.

Today the track has focussed on its various NASCAR events as the headline acts, though the season also brings GT World Challenge America races and a host of smaller club races, many run by the SCCA.

The circuit was originally known as Sears Point but changed its name to Infineon Raceway for sponsorship reasons before adopting its current name in 2012.
