Editorial 069

Welcome to Colt & Ferg to the crazy world of Carrera Digital (CD) Racing! Both Colt Holland and Ivor (Ferg) Ferguson had run in the HO side of DHORC first before adding CD to their portfolio. Ferg had a CD test on Phil Rees' man cave track while Colt, like Lee Stokes and Daryl Russell earlier in the year, was thrown in the deep end having his test on Ruapuna Raceway minutes before his very first race. Luckily they both passed with flying colours!

We have now gone five Club Nights with different winners at each, with Tom Gray taking Round 45, Steve Whittaker 46 and Victor de Oliveira. The record is six so it will be interesting to see if we match that in the first Club Night at Road Atlanta on Friday and maybe break it in the second!

Congratulations to our three winners together with our Group winners at Ruapuna, particularly Andy Mason and Ian Cowlshaw for taking their very first Group wins, Ian even taking his second straight afterwards! Our other winners were Richard Booth, Stuart Gray, Terry Mullen, Andrew Staniec (3), Lee, Martin Thorpe & Ted Whittaker.

We now have an incredibly busy five days coming up with Road Atlanta on Friday/Saturday 23/24Oct26 and our humongous 402' Interlagos on Tuesday 27Oct26. Thanks in advance to all who support us for these two events.

2. Colt & Ferg take us to a record 51 CD '26 Members

For the third Carrera Digital evening in a row we added new CD Members to our roster with Colt Holland and Ivor (Ferg) Ferguson being our 9th and 10th new CD Members in 2026, taking us to a record 51 CD Members this year. Colt, Nick Sismey's son-in-law's sister Kelly Holland's son has already run in two HO evenings and was just coming along to Ruapuna to see what 1/32nd Digital racing was all about. However we had a space on the grid, so he borrowed Nick's No 54 Porsche, had a CD driving test and then started his first race minutes later! Ferg, Nick Jarram's wife's friend's dad also ran in our Pukekohe HO Club Night, had a CD driving test on Phil Rees' man cave track (See overleaf) and then borrowed Nick S' No 24 Porsche 911 at Ruapuna. A big DHORC welcome to both.

5. “It’s not goodbye but see you later!”

A lovely few words from Scott Bradley, who will hopefully be back in the not too distant future.

“Hi all 🤔🤔🤔

I think when Nick welcomed me to the group I shared some pictures of my ‘side hobby’ which is being a mechanic in the GT Cup.

This is my time to sign out from the DHORC group as I am just so, so busy!

I am very pleased and proud to say that after a great year of racing (and seeing some of our members at the local track, Donington) we have secured the class championship, Teams Championship, and OVERALL GT Cup championship!

At the moment I am juggling my own business which has taken off faster than I ever hoped, my little baby boy who has just turned one, race and test weekends, plus any personal travel or downtime!

I have massively enjoyed being part of the club and hopefully I will remain “a friend of the club” and see you at events or racetracks like I have this year.

Maybe it won’t be too long until Tuesday evenings become a little more free for me!

A huge thanks to everyone who welcomed me and helped me when I first started 🤔🤔

6. Interlagos 402 just three days after Road Atlanta!

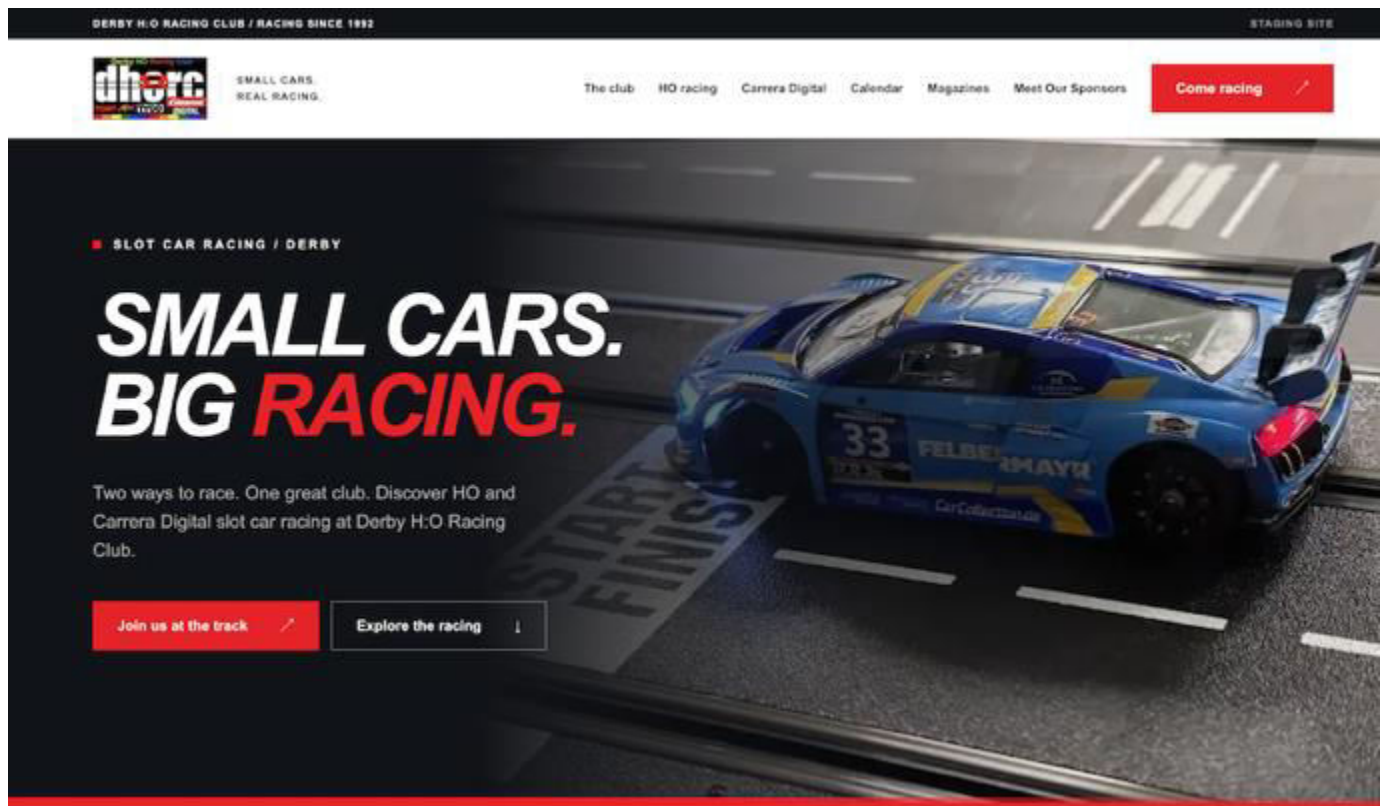

The next week is going to be incredibly busy with our HO Donington Park meeting on Tuesday 20Oct26 followed by the CD Road Atlanta weekend on Friday/Saturday 23/24Oct26 and then our largest ever Carrera Digital track, the 402'3" old Interlagos circuit being run in the Nightingale Hall. Logistics is going to be incredible again but with so many folk offering to help I'm sure it will be perfect.

7. DHORC Website refresh!

Again, without me knowing, my son-in-law Matt Holland has refreshed our www.dhorc.co.uk website. We are just testing it and then the new version will be released. Thank you so much Matt.

Andrew Staniec took all three Group C wins at Ruapuna, to go with the last two at Road America, so five in a row. He actually holds the record of 17 in a row! Will that ever be beaten? Our reigning 70+ Group Challenge Champion continues to lead this year's Championship. On top of all that he recorded his best ever finish of 4th with his Ford GT.

Lee Stokes made Group D his own in the first race of the night. He was very consistent all night with a 16th, 17th and 15th place finish in his first visit to Ruapuna.

Tom beats Champions to first Win of the night!

Tom Gray didn't let the fact that he and his BMW (1) had dropped down to Group B after the Road America weekend get in his way of taking his fourth win of 2026 and sixth since his first Club Night 195 races ago. His margin of victory over Victor de Oliveira, one of five racers running with lap penalties, was 1.9 laps, 76.3 to 74.4, which our reigning Endurance Race Champion would have gapped had he not been carrying a 3-lap penalty. He and his Aston Martin (1) keep this 3-lap penalty through to the next round as he finished on the podium. Victor made it six Poles in a row taking his 85th (22nd) and seven straight fastest laps as he notched up a record 96th (25th). Simon Goodlip in third with his Audi R8 (1) would have only been half a lap behind Tom without his 2-lap penalty, which he also retains for Round 46, however he finished on 73.8 laps after the deduction.

Our 12th Carrera Digital Evening of the year saw a capacity grid of 30 cars for both 15-minute Endurance Races and the 5-minute Sprint Race, despite ten Tuesday racers being unavailable. This 30 car grid included two new Members Ivor (Ferg) Ferguson and Colt Holland, both running in their very first races in Group E, and both borrowing Porsche 911's.

2nd	1st	3rd
Victor de Oliveira	Tom Gray	Simon Goodlip

Phil Rees, having retired his Mustang, now runs a Ferrari (1) taking fourth here just 0.4 laps behind Audistang team mate Simon in third. Two Group A and two Group B finishers in the top four became three of each Group in the top six with Steve Whittaker's BMW (2) beating son Ted Whittaker's Audi R8 (2) by 0.2 laps to take fifth, eight tenths of a lap behind Phil.

Unlike Phil and his Ford Mustang, Andrew Staniec has stuck with his Ford, his Ford GT (1) and to good effect taking seventh and his third straight Group win, the C, to go with the two D wins in the last two races at Road America. Seventh was but two places off his best result, sixth tenths of a lap behind Ted.

Chris Cooper was our third racer to carry a penalty in this race, his 1-lap penalty not actually effecting him and his McLaren's (1) position as he was 1.3 laps behind Andrew. He would share eighth with Liam Smith's Ferrari (2) on 70.5 laps while the first third of the grid was closed out by Angus Smith and his McLaren (2) being two tenth markers behind this pair, on 70.3 laps. He would also be the last racer to surpass 70 laps. The next ten would all be on 60+ laps. Chris would lose his penalty for the next race having finished outside the podium places.

Andy Mason took his very first Group win in his 33rd race start, no wonder he was smiling!

The first 60+ lap racer and car combination was Angus' 2 Fast 2 Furious team mate Lewis Blacker and his Ferrari (3) in 11th on 67.5 laps, 2.8 laps outside the top ten while Martin Thorpe was the sixth and last racer in Group B in 12th, the first Group to get all of its cars across the line. Martin's Porsche 911 (1) was carrying a 2-lap penalty which, without, would have placed him in 11th on 69.2 laps, but he had to settle for 12th on 67.2. He would finish this race with the knowledge that he would only have a 1-lap penalty going into Round 46.

While Andrew won Group C in seventh overall his nearest rival in the Group was James Wardle and his Porsche 911 (2) in 13th some 6.3 laps behind Andrew and 1.7 behind 12th placed Martin. James was immediately followed home by the third Group C racer Jag Kalyan and his Audi R8 (3), 65.5 to 64.9 laps in 14th. Nick Sismey's Porsche 911 (3) would have jumped Jag's Audi had he not been carrying his 1-lap penalty for winning the last Endurance Race at Road America. However our fifth penalty carrier in the race was nowhere near is North American performance level as he finished 15th on 64.3 laps. He was just pleased he would not have a penalty for his next start as he closed our Group A.

While all of the Group B, half the Group C and now the full suite of Group A cars had crossed the line in the top 15, the first Group D car of Lee Stokes, his pink Audi R8 (4), led four other Group D cars across the line in unison. Starting from D6 Lee would bag a maximum 11 Group points, the only one to do so all night. His 63.9 laps was 0.4 laps behind Nick, but Lee only held a 0.3 lap lead over Stuart Gray's McLaren (3) on 63.6 laps. Another six tenths back was Stuart's brother-in-law and Nick's Old Roller's team mate Richard Booth's McLaren (4) which started in D3 and finished in D3 on 61.7 laps. At least he added 4 Group points with Nick only good for one!

Macaully Dutson's Pink Ferrari (4) also took home 4 Group points having moved up from D5 to D4, 0.2 laps behind Richard on 61.5 in 19th. James Bowles returned after missing the last 12 Club Nights at Sonoma (3) and Road America (9) combined. His McLaren (5) was the fifth Group D racer over the finish line on the trot, 1.2 laps behind Macaully in 20th as the second third of the grid made it home.

The next three cars would see Group C all back in the pit lane after the slow down lap, Terry Mullen dropping a place in the Group from C3 to C4 with his McLaren (6) in 21st, one of eight cars to surpass 50 laps but not reach 60. His 58.7 laps was 0.6 behind CD's team mate James' similar car, both set up by Terry. Daniel Kalyan gained a place from C6 to C5 finishing on the same three Group points as Terry as he finished half a lap back with his Audi R8 (5) in 22nd. Group C would be the third Group to finish with José Borges Audi R8 (6) matching first time Group winner Andy Mason's Ferrari (5) on 56.1 laps in 23rd. This was Andy's 33rd start so a relief for him to finally join the other 57 Group winners to date with the Group E win.

All six Group E racers were line a stern with Simon Rankin's Lamborghini (1) only a tenth marker behind José and Andy on 56.0 laps in 25th while Ian Cowlshaw admitted he lost the Group win due to pit stop issues with his Porsche 911 (4). He would fix this in the next two races but here had to settle for 26th and E3 having started in E4 some 2.1 laps behind Simon on 53.9 laps. Traffic on the way in meant Mike Graham had to run this race in Group D but it still counted for Group E as he was the fourth of the Group passing the flag in 27th on 52.6 laps. He and his Pink Pig Porsche 911 (5) being one of six racers new to the Ruapuna circuit.

Our two newest recruits Colt Holland (who took his CD test at Ruapuna just before the evening started) and Ivor (Ferg) Ferguson finished in 28th and 29th with their borrowed Porsche 911's (6&7) 3.9 laps apart on 50.4 and 46.5, unfortunately just outside the points. Daryl Russell, in only his second event, was struggling with his Ferrari's (6) braids, leaving him at the foot of the table for the very first time on 44.8 laps becoming our 27th different Wooden Spoon winner of 2026.

Parc Fermé – 23 of the 30 car grid. Car types were broken down as follows:
1 – Aston Martin, 1 – Ford GT, 1 – Lamborghini, 2 – BMW, 6 – Audi R8, 6 – Ferrari,
6 – McLaren & 7- Porsche 911

Round 46

Carrera
DIGITAL 132

13th October 2026

Steve Whittaker took his first Carrera Digital win on 31Jan26 at Monza. In Round 46 he took his sixth with his BMW.

Steve takes top honours with the highest lap score of the evening

Steve Whittaker made it back-to-back victories at Ruapuna Raceway for the Bayerische Motoren Werke mark after Tom Gray took his BMW to the win in the previous round. With his 77.6 laps Steve recorded the most Endurance Race (ER) laps of the evening, although this didn't challenge the race record of 80.1 laps set by reigning ER Champion Victor de Oliveira set on 17Mar26. This was Steve's sixth win of the year and his career. That also made it four different winners in a row!

Still carrying a 2-lap penalty, which he will continue to carry into the Road Atlanta weekend, Simon Goodlip wouldn't have beaten Steve without it as he was 2.3 laps further back on 75.3 laps with Chris Cooper taking his fourth podium finish in his last five starts and sixth from his last eight, finishing on 74.7 laps as the SmartRace App brought this 15-minute race to an end. While 0.3 laps separated Steve and Simon at the flag they both set exactly the same lap time of 9.799 seconds.

Round 46

Ruapuna -

13 October 2026

2nd Simon Goodlip	1st Steve Whittaker	3rd Chris Cooper

With Group A taking all three podium places Martin Thorpe headed Group B this time on 73.3 laps. Again his 1-lap penalty, which he now loses, didn't affect his finishing position. Again Phil Rees' fortunes continue to be maintained as he only dropped a place to fifth in the second race of the night, second in the B to Martin by eight tenths of a lap.

Someone else who is enjoying a resurgence in form is Andrew Staniec taking his fourth straight Group win with back-to-back Group C victories, one place better than Round 45, one place off his best ever result!

He was matched on 71.6 laps by our fourth Group A racer, our 2022 Champion Angus Smith, which would be his best result of the night. Half a lap behind these two Liam Smith added 0.6 tenths of a lap to his previous score but remained in eighth. He was the last of the 70+ racers on 71.1 laps, which unusually was two less than the first race of the evening.

Martin Thorpe took the Group B win in the second Endurance Race of the evening with 73.3 laps after taking 12th in the first Round but dropping to 15th in the Sprint Race.

The first of 14 racers to record between 60 and 70 laps was James Wardle on 68.9, over three laps better than earlier and a four place improvement with ninth, equalling his best ever result! There was only a tenth of a lap between him and Lewis Blacker in tenth, 1.3 laps moving Lewis one place higher this time. Richard Booth took eight Group points by winning Group D finishing in 11th on 67.1 laps, a seven place improvement, while Jag Kalyan jumped two to 12th on 66.7 laps. Terry Mullen almost joined him on the same tenth and same finishing place in the D had the seventh tenth marker not separated them.

Ted Whittaker was the fifth Group D racer to cross the line finishing with 66.1 laps, making it three cars finishing on the same lap. His yo-yo evening, seeing him going from 6th to 14th, would get far better in the last race of the evening. Meanwhile Macaully Dutson's was getting better, up four places to 15th and second to Richard in the D. Richard's team mate Nick Sismey was the next car to cross the line, 65.1 laps to Macca's 65.3, Nick's performance really dropping after his win four races ago! Lee Stokes made it three Group D racers in the top 17, Stuart Gray making it four in the top 18, with 64.7 and 63.1 laps in the record books, both finishing, like Nick, one place below their Round 46 results.

Daniel Kalyan, meanwhile, was on an upward trajectory with 22nd in his first race and 19th here on 62.4 laps. Unfortunately Tom Gray was on freefall! Having taken the first win of the night he dropped to 20th here. Even without his 1-lap penalty he would have still taken 20th, sharing it with José Borges who made three steps up the ladder, both on 61.3 laps. Tom and then José ensured Group B & C would be the first two Groups to get all of their drivers over the line.

The 14th and final 60+ lapper was Ian Cowlshaw who would become our second Member of the night to celebrate his first career Group win, both being in the E. His 61.1 laps took him to 22nd a four place improvement thanks to hitting all of his targets during the pit stop cycles this time, where success then followed!

James Bowles didn't manage to pip team mate Terry by one place this time as the latter was already settling down to a Tintagel pastie in his motor home as James crossed the line ten places further back in 23rd on 58.5 laps. Colt Holland's second career race awarded him a four place improvement with 24th thanks to clearing 57.3 laps, 6.9 better than in his inaugural race as he began to find his feet. Andy Mason had been our other first timer to take a Group win in the earlier race. This time he was third in the E two tenths of a lap behind Colt in 25th despite being exactly a lap further down the road than his previous result of 23rd.

While we had all six E racers finishing consecutively in Round 46 we only had four in a row here. Behind Colt and Andy was Simon Rankin in 26th on 56.2 laps and Mike Graham on 55.0 laps in 27th, Simon dropping a position, Mike matching his. The final three racers were all the last racers in the remaining three Groups. Victor de Oliveira may have taken his seventh Pole in a row recording 86 (23) to date. Victor may have taken his eighth straight fastest lap to raise his club record to 97 (26), but car problems saw him unfortunately languishing in 28th place on 52.2 laps.

Simon extends his lead in the Endurance Race Championship from 180 to 200 points over Tom, despite the latter taking his fourth win of the year. Some 53 points further back Steve White is still holding onto third position by the skin of his teeth despite missing the last eight Endurance Races, with Victor just seven points behind him. Steve will also miss Road Atlanta so will drop further down after that weekend.

Ivor (Ferg) Ferguson matched his 29th place finish from his first race, Daryl Russell matched his 30th place finish from his 10th race start, making it back-to-back Wooden Spoons. Both however would improve their lot in the Sprint Race later.

Richard kept Team Old Rollers in second place in the Team Championship with 15 Group points to Nick's six. He won Group D in this Round with a best finish of 21st in the previous race.

Round 47

DIGITAL 132

13th October 2026

Victor de Oliveira took his first win, since the first Okayama Endurance Race on 07Jul26, here in the Ruapuna Sprint Race. He also took all three Poles and fastest lap taking him to a record 98th front grid slot.

Victor takes first win since 07Jul26 @ Okayama

Victor de Oliveira finally got back to winning ways which, in his eyes has seen a drought of 19 Club Nights without a win. In fact it is the longest streak Victor has gone without a win since his first win on 28May24 at the Rockingham Motor Speedway. Running clear of any penalty laps Victor took his 66th (12th) win making it five different winners in a row (the record is six in mid 2025). Prior to this our reigning Champion took his 87th (24th) Pole, his eighth in a row. Then in the race his ninth straight fastest lap raised his record to 98 (27) which helped him to a winning score of 28.7 laps, although well down on his race record of 31.3 laps set on St Patrick's day last March.

The Whittaker family then closed out the rest of the podium, with son Ted Whittaker in second, 0.8 laps back with 27.9. This was his best result since his only win on 29Nov25, 54 Club Nights ago at Bathurst and his third Group B win of the year. Another 0.2 laps back was dad Steve Whittaker, fresh from his win in the previous round, on 27.7 laps.

We then had a three way tie for fourth and leading the way in this tie was Andrew Staniec taking his fifth straight Group win and all three Group C wins at Ruapuna. What's more this was a career best finish beating his fifth on 20Jan26 at Sonoma Raceway. He is really getting that Ford GT humming! This was the only PB of the night! Joining Andrew on 26.9 laps was fellow Group C racer Terry Mullen who not only shared fourth but also the Group C win, his third Group win of the year to Andrew's 14th! Making up this trio was Phil Rees matching his finishing place from the first round of the night with his Ferrari.

José Borges loves a Sprint Race, and did it show here as he finished but a tenth behind this trio on 26.8 laps in seventh and third in the C. This was 13 places better than either of his two Endurance Race results. In some cultures the number 888 (triple 8) is a symbol of financial prosperity, good fortune, and spiritual alignment. Liam Smith should therefore hope for at least one of these as his 26.6 laps here meant he finished in eighth place in all three rounds in New Zealand! Only two tenths of a lap behind José, he was but a tenth ahead of Group D winner Stuart Gray on 26.5 laps in ninth. Stuart became the third racer in the Sprint Race to take his third Group win of the year. Ninth was also the highest position for four of the five Group winners to make it home on the night.

Simon Goodlip made it seven racers starting their 27th lap in the last race of the evening, his 26.3 laps rounding out the top ten. Had he not been carrying a 2-lap penalty he would have finished in second place. He does however lose one of his penalty laps going into the next Sprint Race at Road Atlanta. Even better news for Simon is that in the Sprint Race Championship he extends his lead over the absent Steve White by 11 points to 41 with Victor's fifth Sprint Race win of the year taking him to within 8 points of Steve. Oh and after Simon and Steve matching lap times in the previous round Simon was just 0.01 seconds quicker than Steve this time!

Ted took the Group B win in the Sprint Race and second overall, out pacing his dad, Steve Whittaker, by two tenths of a lap, as they both finished on the podium.

Round 45 winner Tom Gray was fourth in Group B this time, in 11th, the only race on 26 laps, with 25.7 laps in the books. While it wasn't as bad as his 20th in the last race it certainly wasn't as good as his earlier win on his unusual yo-yo evening. Angus Smith was a little more consistent taking 12th after a 10th and 6th place finish with his 24.8 laps leading six racers on the same lap. Our 2022 Endurance Race Champion going nearly 11-months now without a win!

Richard Booth and Macaully Dutson shared 24.7 laps in the 5-minute race, 13th, 7.5 race points and second in Group D. However Macca took more Group points with 4.0 to Richard's 3.0 as he started in D5, Richard D3. Macaully would also be the biggest mover in the Ranking Chart after Ruapuna, moving up six places to 28th. We then had another pair in 15th with Martin Thorpe finishing in B5 in his 214th start and Lee Stokes sharing the 24.3 laps in D4 running in his 18th Club Night. Lewis Blacker was the sixth and final racer to pass the finish line for the 24th time, his car coming to a rest between the second and third tenth in 17th.

Phil extends his lead in the Group Challenge from 6.5 to 17.0 points as his total rises to 196.0 thanks to the second highest number of Group points at Ruapuna, 20. Only Lee scored more with 21 as he jumped from 30th to 24th place in the standings. Andrew finds himself in second now thanks to his three Group wins on Tuesday, up from fifth, while Liam drops to third, however just half a point separates them. The next three racers, Martin, Tom and Simon are only covered by another 5.0 points in what could become a very tight title race!

Taking second place overall in the Group Challenge Andrew must still lead the 70+ Group Challenge, however Richard matched him toe to toe during the evening meaning the gap remains at 12.5 points. Stuart maintains third but drops four points to go 25.0 behind Richard now.

Jag Kalyan and Nick Sismey were the only ones to be starting their 24th lap as they took 18th and 19th on 23.9 and 23.7 laps, both being their worse finishing positions of the night! On the other hand Daryl Russell finally got into his stride, with his Ferrari's braids now sorted, and jumped up from two 30th place finishes to 20th, one lap behind Nick on 22.7 laps. With Nick finishing in A5, Daryl in D5, James Wardle made it a trio of fifth place Group finishers taking C5, on 21.9 laps in 21st.

With Simon leading both the Endurance and Sprint Race Championships and Phil the Group Challenge their Team Audistang is also extending its lead in the Team Group Challenge with the gap growing from 29.5 to 41.0 points over Team Old Rollers consisting of Richard and Nick. Team Gray Hounds' pairing of father and son Stuart and Tom, who both took Group wins in New Zealand, jump up a place to third, another 11.5 points back. The Segrob Ceinats and M&S teams are only 1.5 and 3.5 points further back!

Three more racers joined James on their 22nd lap, led by double and back-to-back Group E winner Ian Cowlshaw, who now has an Endurance Race and a Sprint Race Group win in his pocket. His 21.7 laps was followed in by Simon Rankin in 23rd on 21.1 laps and Daniel Kalyan just creeping over the line on 21.0 laps in 24th. Andy Mason was third again in Group E as he was in the last race and again in 25th place, on 20.7 laps while James Bowles joined Daniel on the same tenth but exactly a lap back on 20.0 laps in 26th, closing out Group D.

The next three racers were all from Group E with a very happy Colt Holland and a pleasantly surprised at his competitiveness Ivor (Ferg) Ferguson in 27th and 28th on 18.5 and 17.2 laps in their very first evening of racing! Mike Graham closed our Group E this time with 15.6 laps in 29th while Chris Cooper, after an 8th and 3rd place finish, dropped to the bottom of the table to become our 28th Wooden Spoon winner of the year in 30th with 15.0 laps. Even if he had not been carrying a one lap penalty he would have only moved up a place
