Editorial 071

Thank you all for converting a pipe dream into reality! The original Interlagos circuit in São Paulo, Brazil has always been a favourite of mine. We originally ran it as a four-lane 203' HO track on 04Jan94 which we ran 12 times in all and went even bigger 22-years later on 09Feb16 with a one off 414'2" circuit, yes bigger than this Carrera Digital (CD) one! We then ran a 254' CD version before running this massive 402'3" version. When we moved back to Derby Leisure & Events earlier this year I had my eye on the Nightingale Hall and I was determined to plan out a 400'+ version. With thanks to Phil Rees for providing the new power lead box and so many of you helping with the build etc it all came to fruition on Tuesday 27Oct26 where the majority of the racers loved it!

One racer who certainly loved it was Steve White who returned after missing 21 Club Nights to take all three wins in in Brazil's largest state, São Paulo. Two more who loved it were Mike Graham and Daryl Russell who took their first ever Group wins there!

Congratulations to them and to the rest of our Group winners, with Lee Stokes and Andrew Woodhouse taking all three, Angus Smith two, Lewis Blacker and Dave Trantom one each.

We remain in Brazil for our next Carrera Digital evening on 03Nov26 travelling to Fortaleza in the northeastern Brazilian state of Ceará on the Atlantic coast at the Autódromo Internacional Virgílio Távora at Eusébio. See you all there!

3. For Le Mans read Circuit of the Americas 11/12Dec26

With the amount of effort required to move and build Interlagos 402 in the Nightingale Hall, as covered above, we have decided to replace the Le Mans weekend in the Nightingale Hall on 11/12Dec26 with the Circuit of the Americas in the Table Tennis Room. Stuart Gray, Phil Rees and I took time out on 04Nov26 to mock up the first corner which rises to around 4 feet. There will also be other undulations in this exciting new circuit!

Steve returns to dominate the Interlagos evening!

After missing the last three Carrera Digital events which included no less than 21 GT races former Championship leader Steve White returned full of vigour to take on the 29 car field on what was our largest ever track, a 402'3" replica of the glorious original Interlagos track in São Paulo, Brazil.

Following a 5-minute practice/Qualifying, where Steve took second on the grid, his Porsche 911 (1) took him to his 29th career victory and tenth of 2026, by 1.45 laps, together with the Group A win. Yes 1.45 as we decided to divide Interlagos into 20ths rather than 10ths due to the sheer size of the track! With this being our first time on this circuit, our 33rd different circuit since we began CD racing on 18Jan22, Steve's 32.05 laps was a track record. Second to Steve was Simon Goodlip and his Audi R8 (1). In Steve's absence our double Champion had taken over the reins of this year's Championship and looks favourite to take his third title!

Again with Interlagos being so huge we agreed that the normal 1-lap penalty for a race win would be reduced to 0.5 laps. Simon was carrying a 2-lap penalty coming into this event, which was therefore reduced to one. His 30.60 laps would have therefore been 31.60 laps; the penalty not affecting the result of the race. Tom Gray's BMW Z4 (1) made it an all Group A podium with three different German car manufacturers. He would finish on 30.15 laps, 0.45 behind Simon.

In only his 28th race start Lee Stokes was seen knocking on the door of the podium for the first time with his Pink Pig Porsche 911 (2), just 0.30 laps preventing him achieving this goal. This beat his PB of sixth at Road Atlanta on the previous Saturday, while he also took fifth on the grid, an eight place improvement from 13th at Road America on 25Sep26. Added to this he set the seventh fastest lap of Round 57, beating his 12th on Saturday. He also took his third straight Group D win after victories in the last two Road Atlanta Club Nights on Saturday.

Martin Thorpe and his Porsche 911 (3) were carrying a 1-lap penalty after the Road Atlanta weekend, reduced to half a lap here. Without it he would have taken third but finished in fifth on 28.75 laps. The only other racer starting their 29th lap was Angus Smith with his Pink Audi R8 (2), taking the Group B win on 28.40 laps. Chris Cooper's McLaren 720S (1) made it five Group A racers in the top seven places as he beat second in Group B, Nick Sismey and his Gulf Porsche 911 (4) by just a tenth of a lap, 27.75 to 27.65.

Andrew Woodhouse was straight on it in Group C following home Nick's identical Gulf Porsche 911 (5) to take the C win and ninth on 26.85 laps. He also set the fourth fastest lap which was a

Lee Stokes had his best racing night to date at Interlagos 402, winning all three Group Ds taking him to five straight Group wins for the first time. He also took runner up spot twice. The first time he has made the podium in 29 starts!

PB beating his ninth at Road America on 26Sep26. Stuart Gray was then one of four racers on their 26th lap. Running a BMW Z4 (2), like son Tom, he would finish on the 0.80 twentieth on 25.80 laps to close out the top ten, a tenth ahead of fellow D racer Macaully Dutson on 25.70 laps with his pink Ferrari 488 (1), which would turn out to be his last run at DHORC. Another Ferrari 488 (2) belonging to Lewis Blacker was a twentieth further back in 12th on 25.65 laps while Richard Booth's McLaren 720S (2) was the last to record 25+ laps with 25.45 laps in the books in 13th.

Dave Edwards was running the third Gulf Porsche 911 (6), two of them in Group C, finishing in C2 which equals to 14th on the grid via the Ranking system and 14th in the final standings on 24.85 laps. Having taken his first podium three Club Night's ago at Road Atlanta Andrew Staniec found himself and his bright yellow Corvette CR.7 (1) in 15th here, the median of the grid, on 24.75 laps. We then had ourselves a new Group winner, Mike Graham with the second Pink Pig Porsche 911 (7) in the starting line-up. In his 19th start he would take the Group E win on 23.95 laps becoming our 44th Member to score at least one Group win in 2026. Congrats Mike.

Ian Cowlishaw admitted how much he enjoyed the Interlagos 402 track taking his red and white Porsche 911 (8) to second in the E just a 20th of a lap behind Mike, so he could easily see Mike's brake lights up ahead as he finished on 23.90 laps in 17th. Interestingly Ian had improved by one place at each of the last three rounds! Would he be 16th next? In 18th was Nick Jarram's McLaren 720S (3) as he looked to improve his Ranking score after a difficult Road Atlanta.

Liam Smith took seventh in his last race of the previous weekend, but this time we found his Audi R8 (3) in 19th, Interlagos 402 being nearly four times the size of the Georgia track. His 22.65 laps was followed home by Daryl Russell's Ferrari 488 (3) on 21.85 as he topped off the first score of competitors. The remaining nine were led home by Dave Trantom's BMW Z4 (3) on 21.75 laps, just a tenth of a lap behind fellow Group E racer Daryl, although a tenth could be 80 feet! Laura Edwards, running our second pink Iron Dames Ferrari 488 (4) at Interlagos, made it three Group E racers in a row as she made 22nd her own on 20.70 laps. Group E were all home now as they only had five cars on the grid, the other four Groups, six.

Daniel Kalyan's Audi R8 (4) immediately followed Laura home on 20.45 laps shutting down Group D in 23rd while Victor de Oliveira did the same with his Aston Martin V12 Vantage (1) in an uncharacteristically low finishing position of 24th on 19.10 laps. Despite car issues during the first Endurance Race of the night Victor earlier took his 92nd (29th) Pole and during those 19 race laps increased his club record of fastest laps to 104 (33). His Qualifying lap was actually the quicker of the two, setting the fastest lap around our 402'3" Interlagos at 24.228 seconds equating to 11.320 mph. That would turn out to be the quickest lap of the night.

Three of the remaining four Group C racers came next with Colt Holland again trying his back up Porsche 911 (9) and taking 25th on 19.10 laps in his first run after jumping an incredible 22 places up the ranking charts following the nine race Road Atlanta weekend. Jag Kalyan and his Audi R8 (5) was the next Group C racer in 26th on 18.40 laps knowing that son Daniel was three places and 2.05 laps ahead of him. However Jag finishing fourth in Group C from C6 on the grid rewarded him with 6-points to Daniel's 1 from finishing sixth in the D. Swings and round-a-bouts! Anthony Mitro completed the three straight Group C finishers in 27th on 15.40 laps. Round 58 would better for him and his Porsche 911 (10).

For the first time this year we had two racers take home the Wooden Spoon! Phil Rees and his Ferrari 488 (5) like Jenson Woodhouse's Porsche 911 (11), had problems seeing both finish in 28th on 9.95 laps. Phil became our 34th different Wooden Spooner in 2026 while Jenson took his second of the year! They also closed out Group's B and C.

Car Manufactures at Interlagos were as follows:- Porsche – 11, Audi – 5, Ferrari – 5, BMW – 3, McLaren - 3, Aston Martin – 1, Corvette – 1 = 29 GT cars.

Victor de Oliveira took all three Poles at Interlagos and Round 57's fastest lap, but unusually a best finish of only 10th in Round 58.

Key: Mike averaged 19.667 in last race, Ian 20.000, so Mike E3

Simon Goodlip took the fastest lap in Round 58, his best finish of the night being second in Round 57 before dropping outside the top ten in the other two races.

Steve Porsches his way through to second win at Interlagos 402

You would never have known Steve White's Porsche 911 hadn't turned a wheel for 49 days when he arrived in São Paulo, as, after taking Round 57 he went and did it again in Round 58. Even with a 0.5-lap penalty he extended the 15-minute Endurance Race laps record to 32.60 laps, a 0.55 lap increase from the first race of the night. Steve's 30th (11th) win saw him beat a newcomer to the second step of the podium, well actually the podium full stop.

Lee Stokes had taken a PB finish of 4th in the earlier round and here he was 1.85 (2.35) laps behind Steve in a triumphant second in only his 29th race start! With back-to-back Group D wins in Brazil he made it four straight Group wins and equalled his consecutive Group win PB although last time it had been three E's and a D. Added to this he recorded the sixth fastest lap beating his seventh in Round 57.

Tom Gray, like Steve, also mirrored his first race result of the night at Interlagos 402, by taking second in Group A again and third overall again. This time on slightly less laps, 29.75 compared to 30.15 earlier. He was followed past the flag by fellow Group A racer Martin Thorpe in what was now a 28 car field. Martin recorded 29.60 laps with back-to-back Group B winner Angus Smith another 0.15 laps back in fifth, both with a one place improvement from earlier.

Anthony Mitro had his best finish of the night in this race with 16th

Three cars finished in sixth, those belonging to Group B racers Nick Sismey and Liam Smith with Andrew Woodhouse taking his second Group C win of the night alongside them all on 28.45 laps, all three one tour of the Brazilian circuit behind our Group B winner Angus. Andrew also took fourth in Qualifying smashing his previous PB of ninth way back on 16Apr24 at the Shanghai F1 circuit. We then had two racers in ninth, Andrew Staniec finishing fourth in the B and Dave Edwards second in the C both on 27.80 laps and both improving their lot compared to Round 57 where they were just a tenth of a lap apart, Dave 14th, Andrew 15th. They want to be together!

Nick Jarram finally got back to a finishing position he was happy with after struggling at Road Atlanta, his 27.75 laps moved him up from 17th to 11th, his best result since his tenth at Road America on 26Sep26. Stuart Gray was third in the D, half a lap behind Nick in 12th on 27.25 laps. Adding 1.45 laps to his previous score he actually dropped two places with many improving their lot. One not improving was Endurance Race Championship leader Simon Goodlip who dropped 11 places between races to 13th here on 27.00 laps. Carrying a 1-lap penalty he would have been only ninth without, so competitive are the races now. His speed however is not in question as he took his 77th (20th) fastest lap.

Following Endurance Race Championship Rounds 39 and 40 at Interlagos 402 Simon continues with a gigantic lead ahead of the 51 racers who have run this year, although Tom has reduced that lead from 227 points to 222! Martin has moved up a place to third, swapping with reigning Champion Victor de Oliveira who took 24th earlier and 27th here, his worse run since Monza in January! In his defence he did take his 93rd (30th) Pole, taking both at Interlagos so the speed is still there! Martin lies 132 points behind Tom and 27 ahead of Victor. With Steve taking both race wins the former Championship leader, who has missed the last 14 Endurance Races, moves up from seventh to fifth.

With 38 Rounds counting, based on the 75% rule, worst scores will now be removed. Liam is the first to surpass 38 races, reaching 40 at Interlagos 402, so he has two drop scores as highlighted by the red cells. Six other racers have hit 38 scores so will start to lose their worse scores from Fortaleza next week.

While Simon finished fourth in the A Richard Booth did the same in the D on 26.35 laps, dropping one place, while Chris Cooper, first time winner (twice) at Sonoma Raceway in September, was down in 15th on 26.25 laps eight places worse off than in the first Round. Anthony Mitro on the other hand was on the way up, moving up 11 places to 16th on 26.05 laps. We then had our second new Group winner of the meeting, Daryl Russell taking the E on 25.75 laps in 17th. In his 20th race start he became our 45th Group winner in 2026. Congrats Daryl.

Dave Trantom was half a lap, or 201 feet, behind Daryl in 18th on 25.25 laps, second in the E, while another 20 feet back on 25.20 laps was Colt Holland in 19th, six places better than earlier. After Daniel Kalyan beat dad Jag Kalyan 23rd to 26th in Round 57 Jag reversed the results here but with only by one position between them this time. His fifth position in Group C saw him finish in 20th on 25.05 laps, with Daniel finishing fifth in Group D on 24.35 laps in 21st. Phil Rees kept the pattern going with fifth in Group B on 24.35 laps to finish in 22nd, which was in fact a six place improvement in São Paulo for him.

Two racers then closed out their respective Groups, Jenson Woodhouse the C in 23rd on 24.00 laps and Lewis Blacker the B just a twentieth behind on 23.95 laps in 24th, Lewis dropping 11 places, Jenson gaining four. Three of the last four racers were from Group E with Victor's 27th place finish covered above. Laura Edwards took third in E on 23.80 laps, Ian Cowlishaw fourth on 23.15 and Mike Graham fifth on 18.75, covering the three remaining places, 25th, 26th and 28th. This was Mike's third Wooden Spoon of the year.

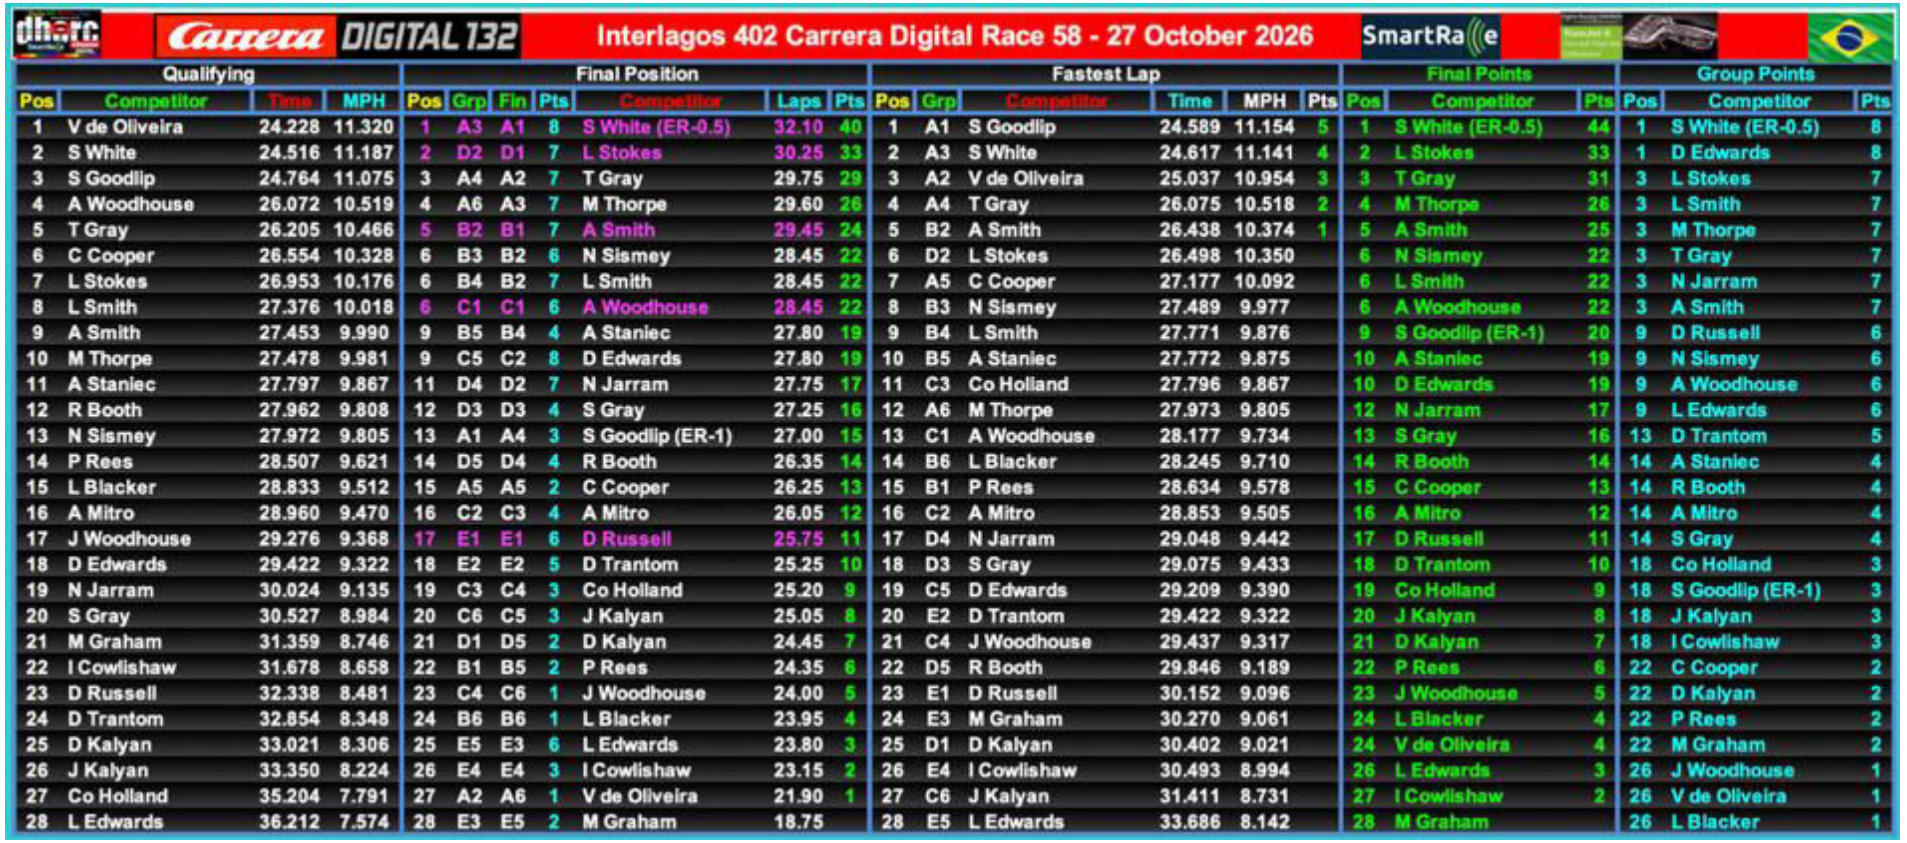

Group E – Laura Edwards, Ian Cowlishaw, Mike, Dave Trantom & Daryl

Group D – Macaully Dutson, Richard, Nick Jarram, Stuart Gray, Lee & Daniel Kalyan

Group C – Jag Kalyan, Dave Edwards, Jenson Woodhouse, Colt Holland, Anthony & Andrew

Race Report

Sprint Races

Interlagos 402 (SR19)

Round 59

Carrera DIGITAL 132

27th October 2026

Lewis won Group B in the Sprint Race taking a 4th place finish!

Steve untouchable at the Interlagos 402!

Steve White is back big time! After his 21 race break Steve was untouchable at our first running of the Interlagos 402 taking all three Club Night wins including the 5-minute Sprint Race. He therefore holds both the Endurance and Sprint Race laps records. While lapping the field here, in just 5-minutes to take his 31st (12th) race win with 11.75 laps, he also claimed his third fastest lap of the year, his first since 31Jan26 at Monza! This took him to 12 career fastest laps. His triple victories equalled his PB of three straight wins way back on 18Jun24 where he took all three wins at the Rockingham Motor Speedway road course.

With Steve taking all three Group A wins in Brazil, Lee Stokes matched him with all three Group D wins. Added to the two he took at the end of the Road Atlanta weekend he now has five consecutive Group D wins, a PB for Lee. He also took back-to-back second place finishes, 1.05 laps behind Steve on 10.70 laps. Added to that he recorded the fifth fastest lap here beating his PB sixth a race earlier. Unsurprisingly Lee was the biggest improver in the Ranking charts after Interlagos 402 moving up seven places to 20th. All that travelling from Scunthorpe was so worth it! Congrats Lee.

Tom Gray also took home a triple, three third place finishes at Interlagos 402, a tenth behind Lee on 10.60 laps this time around. Lewis Blacker finally got his act together with fourth after a 12th and 24th to take the Group B win on 10.45 laps. Three Group winners in the top four! Lewis actually led five of the six Group B racers over the line in what can only be described as a convoy, all of them finishing on the same lap as Lewis. In fifth was Angus Smith on 10.35 laps, sixth Nick Sismey with 10.30 both equalling their best runs of the night, seventh Andrew Staniec on 10.20 recording his best finish of the night as did Phil Rees by a long way in eighth on 10.15 laps. He shared that eighth place with triple Group C winner Andrew Woodhouse who took all three wins inside the top ten!

Tenth and 11th was covered by our inaugural and reigning 2025 Sprint Race Champion Victor de Oliveira and Champion designate Simon Goodlip on 10.00 and 9.90 lap respectively. Thanks to both being in the top five of fastest lappers in the Sprint Race they both took home 10.5 Sprint Race points therefore the 59.0 lead Simon had in the Sprint Race Championship going into Interlagos remains, however Tom, in third reduced the gap to Victor to 13.0 points. Incredibly Simon averaged 8.666 in finishing positions here, Victor an unbelievable 20.333. Totally unheard of! Victor did continue to take Poles however, in fact all three at Interlagos 402 taking him to 94 (31), one off Simon's record.

Liam Smith ensured B would be the first Group to get all of their cars over the finishing line, his 9.85 laps taking him to 12th while Richard Booth is setting up his own oscillation of finishing places. With a 13th, then a 14th in the last two races at Road Atlanta and the 13th and a 14th at the first two at Interlagos, you guessed it, he was 13th here on 9.80 laps and second in the D. Twenty feet further back we had two racers securing second place in the C, in 14th, on 9.75 laps, Colt Holland and Dave Edwards. Added to that Group E winner for the first time of the night Dave Trantom matched them on laps for a three way tie! For Colt and Dave T it was their best results of the night while Dave E had taken ninth in the previous race but matched this race in his first race result with 14th. Clear as mud!

After having one racer finish on 11 laps we had nine finish on 10 laps and now we are working our way through the 13 who completed nine laps! From the top of the nine lapper group in 17th, our mid table finisher was Nick Jarram on 9.60 laps a tenth of a lap ahead of fellow D racer Stuart Gray in 18th. In the 70+ Group Challenge Andrew, our reigning Champion, continues to lead from Richard who has taken 2.0 points out of Andrew's lead, the gap now 12.0 points. Our inaugural Champion, in 2024, Stuart, remains in third dropping one point to his brother-in-law Richard, 10 points now between them, Stuart also having dropped one of his worst scores.

Regarding the Team Group Challenge Simon and Phil's Audistang Team's lead has been reduced in Brazil from 48.0 points, after the nine Road Atlanta weekend races, to 36.5 after the three Interlagos races. However, Stuart & Tom's father/son Team Gray Hounds are now the team in second as they leapfrogged the Old Rollers Team of Richard and Nick, going from 1.0 point behind to 2.0 points ahead.

We still had five more racers to go of the 13 who were somewhere out on the track with nine laps in the books. Next up was a pair of racers in 19th on 9.45 laps, Mike Graham and Anthony Mitro, both scoring their second best result of the night with both having taken 16th in different races earlier! A twentieth marker back behind these two was Ian Cowlishaw on 9.40 laps while Jag Kalyan had won the Kalyan family battle on the night a further five twentieth marker boards back from Ian in 22nd on 9.15 laps. The final racer to cross the line for the ninth time was the notoriously wingless Chris Cooper, well his McLaren 720S actually, with exactly nine laps in 23rd. We think his wing probably got to the first corner! He wasn't the last racer of Group A however!

Following his first Group win in the previous round, Daryl Russell had to take fourth in the E here seven places back from his Group win, in 24th on 8.90 laps. Daniel Kalyan had, for once, to concede to his dad this week with 25th on 8.75 laps as he led home four racers closing out their Groups, Daniel closing the D first. Locking up the E in E5 and 26th on 8.10 laps Laura Edwards held off Jenson Woodhouse who was last in Group C in C6 and 27th overall on 6.5 laps.

Martin Thorpe didn't just take the biscuit, he took the whole packet this time, completing just one lap with a fastest lap time of 292.951 seconds, the slowest lap in the history of DHORC-CD. Martin doesn't like to race in Group A, and this tactical run helps him no end to drop out of its clutches for Fortaleza in a week's time! It was also his second Wooden Spoon of the year!

Now that Martin has crossed the line we can update on more Championships. In the Group Challenge Phil continues to lead however second placed Tom scored 15.5 points to Phil's 5.0 in São Paulo, and therefore the lead is now down to 12.5 points from 23. Martin incredibly remains in third however the gap has increased from 1.5 to 4.5 points between him and Tom.

Carrera DIGITAL 132

Colt helped out with car movements taking a best finish of 14th in the Sprint Race in the rarefied air of Group C, matching Dave Trantom.

Circuit History

The Autódromo Internacional Virgílio Távora at Eusébio, near Fortaleza, is Brazil's fourth permanent motor racing circuit and remains the only such facility in the state of Ceará. The distance from the other major population centres of Brazil has tended to hold the facility back in terms of hosting national championships, though it remains the centre of racing in north east Brazil.

Despite being in public ownership, the track has managed to ensure its activities generate enough revenue each year to ensure it does not require any further taxpayer funding. As a result it seems likely that Fortaleza will continue to enjoy its racing circuit for many years to come.
